1. It is reported that there is considerable pro-Communist Party sentiment among the Chinese in Siam. This is partially the result of accounts being brought to Bangkok by thousands of Chinese immigrants from Swatow. 50 000 immigrants have come into Siam in the past four months with reports of corruption in south China provinces stemming from Kuomintang Headquarters in Nanking. They have brought stories of poverty and oppression by National Government officials and speak glowingly of the progress of the Chinese in Communist Yenan.
